02 / Data collected and their sources

Browsing and security

IP address, access date and time, requested resource, request outcome, browser and device details, and any referring page. These data arise from communications between your device and the systems serving the website and may be recorded in technical logs.

Information you choose to provide

Name, contact details, message content and information needed to handle enquiries, quotations, bookings or orders sent by email, certified email, telephone or WhatsApp. The website has no contact forms, user accounts or online payments.

Language preference

The gallery may remember its language in your browser's session storage. This preference remains on your device and is not used to identify you for advertising purposes.

This notice covers the website and communications received through the listed contact channels. Do not send health data, identity documents or information about children unless strictly necessary. Any needs involving special-category data are handled separately, with the legal basis and information required by law.

03 / Purposes and legal bases

Website delivery and protection	Serving pages, diagnosing errors and preventing misuse. Legitimate interest in operating and protecting the systems: Article 6(1)(f) GDPR.
Enquiries and customer relations	Handling quotations, bookings and orders: steps requested before a contract or performance of a contract, Article 6(1)(b). General enquiries: legitimate interest in responding, Article 6(1)(f).
Legal obligations	Meeting tax and accounting obligations and lawful requests from authorities: Article 6(1)(c) GDPR.
Protection of legal rights	Establishing, exercising or defending rights in a dispute: legitimate interest, Article 6(1)(f) GDPR.
Gallery language	Providing the requested language: Article 6(1)(f) GDPR. Strictly necessary technical storage is exempt from consent under Article 122 of the Italian Privacy Code.

These legitimate interests must be balanced against your rights and freedoms. You may object where Article 21 GDPR applies. The website does not configure analytics, behavioural advertising, newsletters or automated decisions producing legal or similarly significant effects.

04 / Retention and provision of data

Technical logs	For the time needed for delivery, diagnostics and security, according to the hosting service's deletion cycles. Only data relevant to an incident or misuse may be kept until the event or related claims are resolved.
Enquiries and messages	For handling the enquiry and, ordinarily, up to 12 months after it is closed. If a contract or dispute arises, the retention periods relevant to that relationship apply.
Tax and accounting records	For statutory periods, normally 10 years from the entry for accounting records; longer where required for investigations or disputes.
Language and backups	The language is kept for the tab's session, subject to browser session restoration. Backups follow replacement cycles and do not form an archive for additional uses.

Technical data are needed to communicate with the website. Contacting us is optional; without essential contact details and information, we cannot respond to or fulfil your request.

05 / Cookies and browser storage

Before the map is enabled, the website uses only technical tools, without profiling or analytics. The gallery uses the storage described in the table.

Name	cakeGalleryLanguage
Type and purpose	First-party sessionStorage; stores only the gallery language code (it, en or de).
Duration and control	The tab or window session; some browsers may restore it. You can remove it by clearing website data in your browser settings.
Consent	Not required for this strictly technical preference. The website can still be viewed when this storage is unavailable.

Fonts are hosted on this website. Google Maps (Google Ireland Limited) loads within the page only after you choose “Accept and show the map”. Google receives your IP address, technical data and the referring origin, and may use cookies. Legal basis: consent, Article 6(1)(a) GDPR and Article 122 of the Italian Privacy Code. Your choice applies to the open page and is not stored. “Disable map” stops further loading; it does not erase data already received by Google. For cookies, purposes, durations and controls, see Google Privacy and cookie information.

06 / External links and recipients

WhatsApp, Facebook, TripAdvisor and other external links open at your request, under their providers' own policies. Email, certified email and telephone remain available without enabling the map or using social platforms.

Authorised staff and, as necessary, hosting, maintenance, security, email and certified-email providers, professional advisers and competent authorities may access data. Providers acting on the controller's behalf are subject to instructions and Article 28 GDPR obligations where applicable. External service operators may act as independent controllers. Contact data are not intended for public disclosure.

07 / International transfers

Choosing international services may involve processing outside the European Economic Area, as explained in those operators' notices. Any transfers by providers acting on the controller's behalf are subject to Chapter V GDPR, such as an applicable adequacy decision or standard contractual clauses with any necessary supplementary measures. You can request information about recipients, countries and safeguards, including a copy where provided for, using the listed contact details.

08 / Your rights

Where and to the extent provided by Articles 15-22 GDPR, you may:

1. Access your data and obtain a copy; request rectification of inaccurate or incomplete information.
2. Request erasure or restriction of processing when the relevant conditions are met.
3. Obtain portability of data you supplied where automated processing is based on consent or a contract.
4. Object to processing based on legitimate interests on grounds relating to your particular situation.
5. Withdraw consent, where processing relies on it, without affecting the lawfulness of earlier processing.
6. Lodge a complaint with the Italian Garante or a competent supervisory authority, particularly in the EU country of your habitual residence, work or the alleged infringement. Judicial remedies remain available.

How to exercise your rights

Write to info@pasticceriabarromano.it or to the certified email address delizietradizioni@pec.it, explaining your request. We respond without undue delay and within one month. For complex requests this may be extended by two further months, with reasons communicated within the first month. Requests are normally free of charge, subject to Article 12(5) GDPR. A proportionate identity check may be requested where there are reasonable doubts.

09 / Security and updates

Processing is limited to necessary data and access relevant to the stated purposes, with technical and organisational measures proportionate to the risks. This notice is updated when services, processing or applicable rules change. The date on the first page identifies the version available on the website.
